Condition Pressured Good,

Dr. John B. Mugphy, who has been in charge of the Colonel's case since he has been in Chicago, arrived at the hospital at 6:30 A. M., and with Dr. William B. McCauley, the house surgeon, dressed the Colonel's wound for the last time before his departure for the last time before his departure for the East. At the same time a consultation was held, at which Dr. Scurry L. Terrell, the Colonel's specialist: Dr. Arthur D. Bevan, Dr. Alexander Lambert, the Roosevelt family physician, and Dr. John B. Golden, Dr. Murphy's assistant, were present. This consultation was for the purpose of establishing the Colonel's actual physical condition, after a thorough examination, at which all the physicians were present, with a view of taking such precautions as may be necessary to make the journey to the East as comfortable and as safe as possible for the distinguished patient.

The Best of Values in The Best of Clothes

Fashionable dressers, strict economists, the hard-to-fit or difficult to please (at the average store), in short, the whole buying public, are invited to come to the Big Store and see for themselves how decidedly better appareling wants may be supplied here than anywhere else in town. You will find the clothes you prefer to all other makes of Ready-to-Wear (and to the average custom tailored kind, too, for that matter) at prices you will be glad to pay, for they are unmatchable for equal quality garments. The Clothes, the Values and the Prices afford the most conclusive evidence of the Supreme Economic Advantages in buying "Direct from the Makers." It is your own pocket that reaps the benefit of the agents' profits, when you buy Burk Tailored Clothes.
